(4) For the purpose of this scheme, regular service means and includes service by a government servant on appointment/promotion after regular selection in accordance with the provisions contained in the relevant Recruitment & Promotion Rules for that post. The period of service rendered on adhoc, temporary, contract etc. Shall not be counted as the regular service. The period of experience acquired on designated post in R.G.G.P.G. Ayurvedic College & Hospital, Paprola, Distt. Kangra (H.P.) shall also be counted for the purpose of determining eligibility for designation to higher posts under this scheme.

(5) Service rendered outside the College or on non-academic positions/deputation will not be taken into consideration while giving designation under this Scheme.

(6) Any incumbent, who gets higher designation under this scheme will also be entitled for further designation to next higher post on gaining eligibility only after putting in the required years of qualifying service at the lower post. However, these teaching faculty will get regular promotion with financial benefit as and when, they become eligible for promotion as per R&P Rules.

Example: - A Lecturer or Senior Lecturer who might have put in 5 years service as a Lecturer or Lecturer and Senior Lecturer combined in the concerned subject would be eligible only for the designation of Reader. He would be required to put in the prescribed years of service as Lecturer or Lecturer and Senior Lecturer combined or Lecturer and Senior Lecturer and Reader combined in the concerned subject before he would be eligible for the next designation of Professor. Further his regular promotion will take place on the lower post when he will be due for regular promotion against available vacancy and he cannot claim regular promotion on the basis of his/her holding the designation of higher post.

(7) Under this Scheme, the post as and when it becomes vacant shall be filled up at the lowest level i.e., Lecturer in R.G.G.P.G. Ayurvedic College & Hospital, Paprola Distt. Kangra (H.P.).
